Learning Pedagogy

Interactive live lectures offer a real time interaction between student and the faculty where you can clear your doubts and interact with your peers thus providing a dynamic and innovative classroom experience.

Video-based learning offers a great learner experience with visual examples and is the best way to adapt the subject to your unique learning style. It gives you complete freedom to review the content as many times as you want.

Online submission of Assignments and Projects is introduced to give you a hassle-free experience to students throughout the programme and at the same time it will let you assess your overall progress.
